

Eric Bruen

Eric has worked for the past 20 years in banking of which the past 13 years he has served as the CEO of Desert Valleys Federal Credit Union. Eric earned his A.S. degree in Business at Cerro Coso College and is currently completing his B.S. in Business Management. Eric and his wife have two boys, Garrett and Grant.

Eric has served in the community on numerous board and groups to make protect and improve our wonderful community. He was recruited to serve on the RCS board due to his active community involvement and knowledge of financial markets and construction. His experience and community involvement will help RCS expand and improve the school in the future.

As a father to two small children, knowledge of the education system was something that is intriguing to Eric. Additionally, he believes improving and growing our community begins with the education of children and having alternatives for children with different educational needs.
